YORK

York School

Stagecoach Inn

The first permanent settler was George Wilson from New York and he came to York in June of 1830. By 1850 there were 1,211 residents in York Township. We get the name York because most of the settlers were from New York. The town Mallet Creek took its name from an early settler named Henry Mallett. York School was built in 1922 and the Stagecoach Hotel was built around 1830-1832.

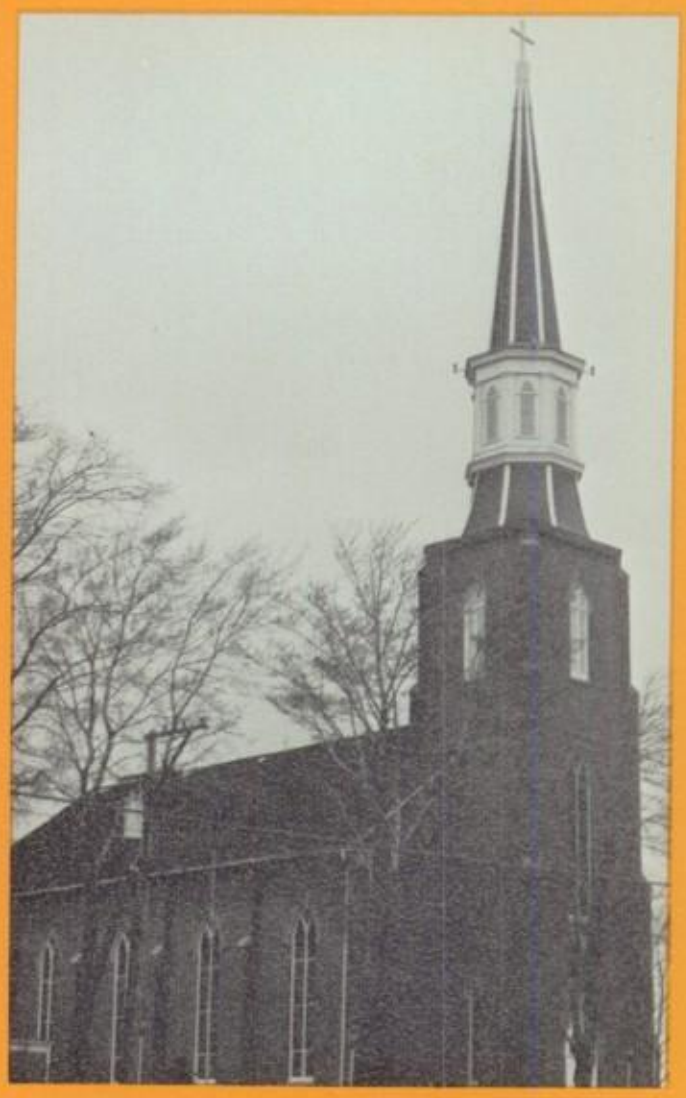
VALLEY CITY

The Valley City School was first built in 1904 and was ready for occupancy by 1906, but was just a high school until 1915. In 1922 they built another addition to the original building and in 1952 the latest addition was built, the same year Liverpool, Litchfield, and York consolidated into Buckeye Local Schools.

The Depot was established in 1894 when the B & O Railroad came into existence. It was 1½ miles from the Liverpool center and caused a service to be put into effect for shuttling mail and passengers.

Valley City was founded in the late winter of 1809 and early winter of 1810. It was settled before the War of 1812. A man by the name of Seba was the first settler of Liverpool Township, and settled in what is now Hardscrabble. Valley City was the only town settled as early as 1810. The settlers didn't grow crops, such as corn, until 1812.

St. Martins Catholic Church was built in 1860. It was built under the direction of Father John Van den Broek and hasn't changed much in looks over the years.



"Stand Your Ground . . . If They Mean to Have a War, Let It Begin Here."

Capt. John Parker

1/ Capt. John Parker uttered those words as the colonial militia under his command prepared to meet the British troops at Lexington. Those works and the painting—Spirit of '76—exemplify the dedication and determination of the American patriots in their fight for independence. The colonies had organized to express their grievances in an effort to resolve the differences within the framework of the Empire. Several of the colonial legislatures had instructed their delegates to the Continental Congress in Philadelphia to oppose any move toward independence. The movement for independence was gaining strength and following the publication of Thomas Paine's Common Sense, which argued for colonial sovereignty, a resolution was adopted and a committee of five appointed to draft a declaration of independence. 2/ General Washington, who had been appointed commander-in-chief of American forces by the Second Continental Congress, was a brilliant military strategist. It was his decision to take his Continentals across the Delaware River on Christmas night which resulted in the first major colonial victory. That victory at Trenton over Hessian mercenaries gave the ragged army renewed vigor. Supported chiefly through the printing of Continental currency, the colonial army also went through the personal fortunes of many American patriots—among them Washington, Jefferson, Richard Henry Lee and John Adams. These fortunes were donated to the cause of liberty—a cause supported by about one-third of the American population which was near 2,000,000. Another one-third remained loyal to the English crown and the remainder were apathetic. Despite many defeats, the colonies managed to keep an army in the field as a symbol of American resistance, to guarantee a negotiated rather than dictated peace.

". . . Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death!"

Patrick Henry

3/ Following the victory at Yorktown, Washington refused the offer of his troops to become king and returned to Philadelphia to aid with the establishment of a permanent government for the new republic—a loose alliance of sovereign states held together by the Articles of Confederation. An envoy composed of Benjamin Franklin, John Adams and John Jay was sent to negotiate with the British. It was not until 1783 that the peace agreement, known as the Treaty of Paris, was signed, guaranteeing the sovereignty of the United States of America. The Articles of Confederation, despite many weaknesses, served to unify the states until 1787 when a special convention was held at Independence Hall in Philadelphia to revise them. The meeting was attended by fifty-five of the most-prominent men of the day. Twenty-nine of the delegates representing a majority of the states met on May 25 and decided to draft an entirely new constitution rather than ammend the Articles of Confederation. The meeting then became known as the Constitutional Convention.

4/ The men who assembled for the Constitutional Convention were an illustrious group with nearly every delegate a person of prominence in his home state. A large majority favored a strong central government. After four months of debate, on September 17, 1787, the new constitution was completed. In a little more than four months, six states had ratified the new constitution. Despite the good beginning, the fight for ratification was bitter and it was not until September 13, 1788, that the necessary two-thirds majority of the states had approved the document and Congress could call for states to choose their electors and congressmen. Several of the states had ratified the constitution with the provision that it would be amended. Thus, as one of its first official acts under the new constitution, the Congress added the first ten amendments known as the Bill of Rights. Washington was unanimously elected President and a new nation was launched on a course of democracy.

SEASONS AT BUCKEYE

Lots of Band practices and Football practices
during the Summer;
Going back to the old hum-drum
of school in the Fall.

The excitement of Christmas and half-year mark
during the Winter;
And the end of school and graduation
in the Spring.

Summer

Deep cream-puff clouds of snowy white,
Bronzed windblown boys with homemade kite,
Broad fields of daisies drenched with sun,
Clear shallow streams where minnows run . . .

Great trees that spread their healing shade,
Trail butterflies, divinely made,
Ripe fruit where April's seeds were sown,
The pungent smell of grass, new mown . . .

The age-old restful, soft refrain of leaves communing with the rain,
Earth, sea, and sky a unity
Of summer's ancient legacy.

Viney Wilder

Autumn is a time to be . . . With good friends that we know . . . While sharing friendship and good food . . . Before the firelights glow.

Autumn is a time to see . . . The changes nature brings . . . The radiant flaming colors shown - In all God's lovely things.

Autumn is a time to pray . . . In thankfulness to God . . . For blessings of the harvesttime . . . For richness of the sod.

BEAUTIFUL WINTER

There are snowflakes in the winter
To sparkle in the sun
And the magic of the twilight
When winter days are done.
The rows of icy fringes
Along the laves and sills . . .
The joy of watching snowflakes
Becoming drifted hills.

The lovely feather etchings
On frosted windowpanes
And winter's purple shadows
That darken streets and lanes.
The sound of footsteps crunching
Along the frozen snow,
And seeing friendly windows
With cozy lights aglow.

Harriet Whipple

How soft the hills with newest green!
    How clear the springtime sky . . .
Like a calm and serene brow on
    A child's sudden, happy smile.

How light the heart in springtime!
    How, as though dancing on its toes,
It greets a time of loveliness with Release and lilting joy!

DEDICATION

The dedication of the 1976 yearbook went to Mr. Frank Pasquerella. He is the band director for Buckeye. He is a swell person to get along with both in and out of class. He has helped people in the band extensively and made our band number one in the County.

After these years of lectures heard,
Of papers read, of hopes deferred,
Of days spent in the dark stacks
In learning the impervious facts
So well you can despense with 'em,
Now that the final day has come
When you shall answer name and date
Where fool and scholar judge your fate
What have you gained?

The 1975 Buckeye Football Team started slowly but as the season progressed became a fine team. Forced to play a number of games in very adverse weather conditions, the Bucks were an exciting team.

The seniors wrapped up their playing days at Buckeye in a very exciting game as they played for their parents who were honored that night.

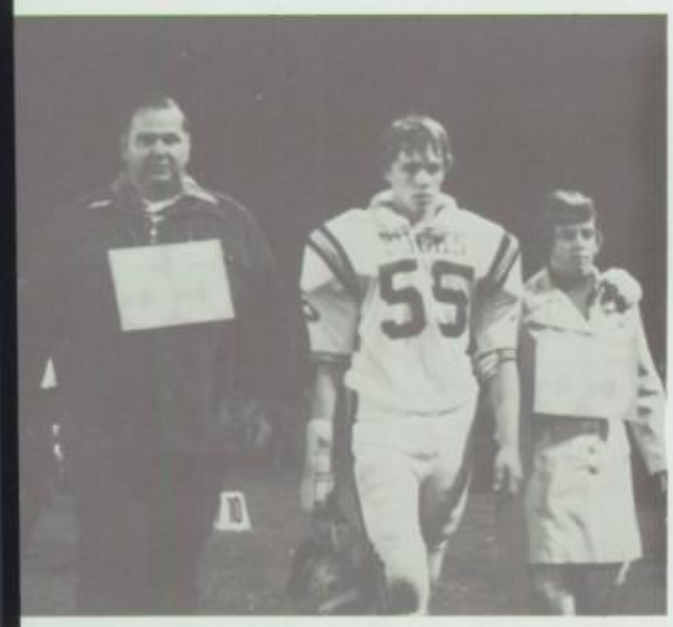
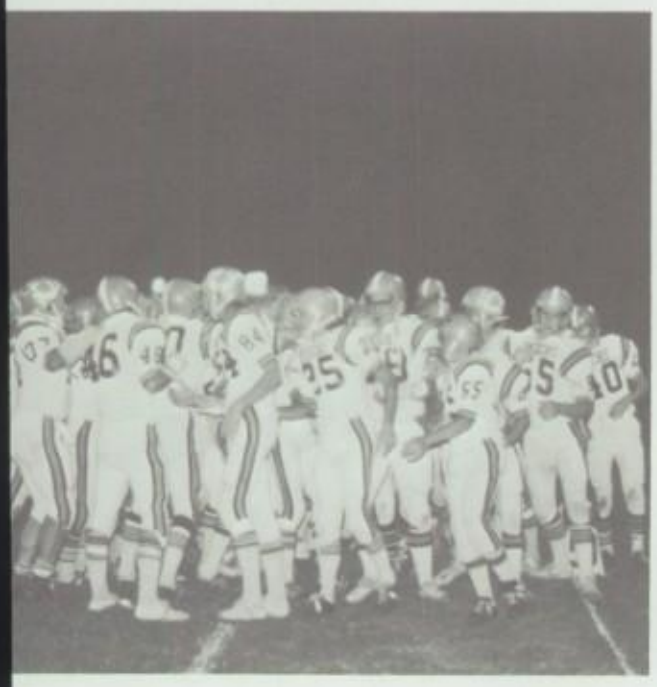
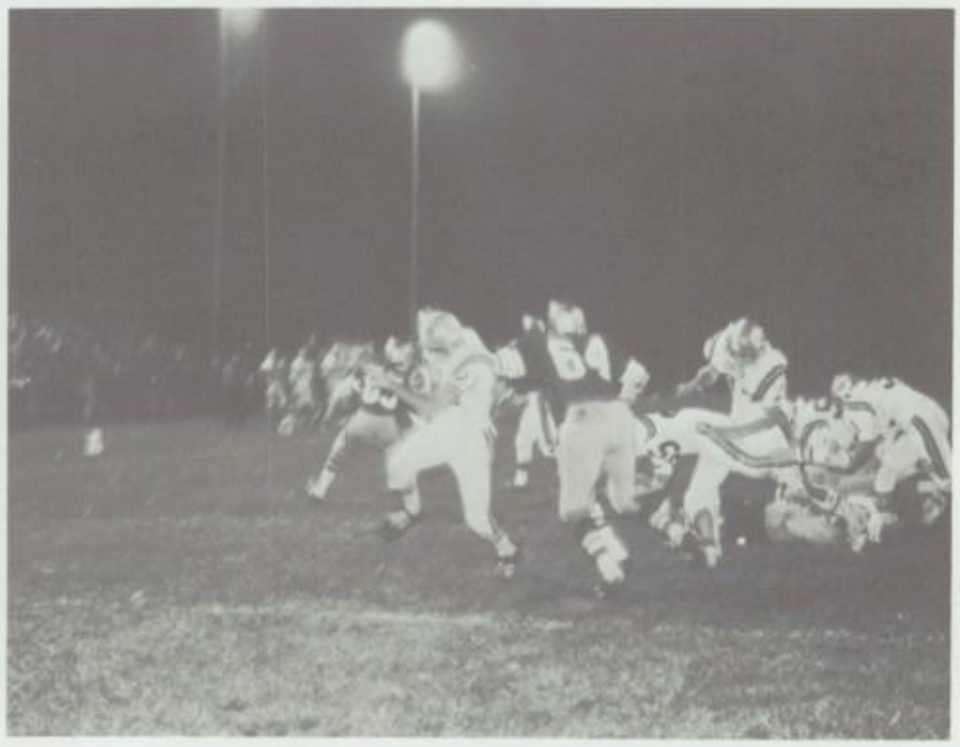
Even though the J.V.'s record wasn't great, they played hard enough to earn the right as true Bucks.







The Bucks spring into action (above) and Jim Basile, due to an all out effort, reaches the goal line (left).

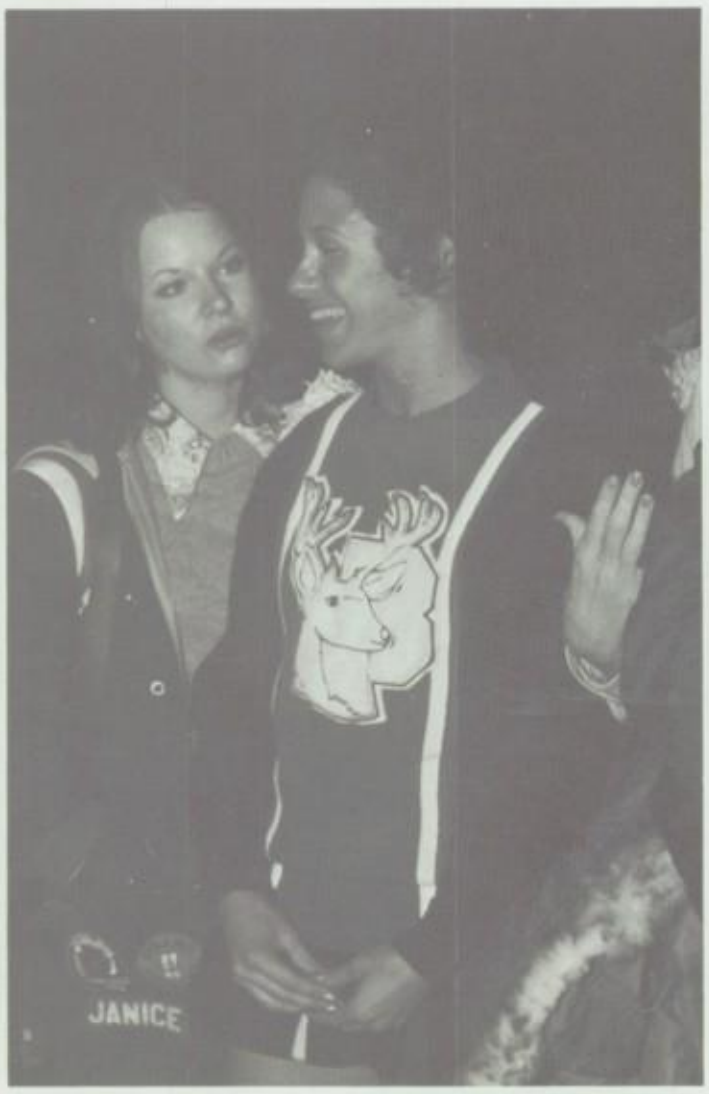
Come on, let's get it together.



Jan and Jean talk over our Varsity game.

Our Varsity Cheerleaders went to Denison University the last of June. There they learned such skills as gymnastics, stunts, and also a few pom pom routines. To earn money all the cheerleaders, varsity, J.V., and freshmen sold soap, pom poms, buttons, and key chains.

The Juniors this year worked very hard to make their Prom a success. The theme of Prom Was "The Old South." They started the year by selling magazine subscriptions. The concession stand and selling candy bars at lunch really gave the treasury a boost. Their paper drive also contributed to the success of the Prom.

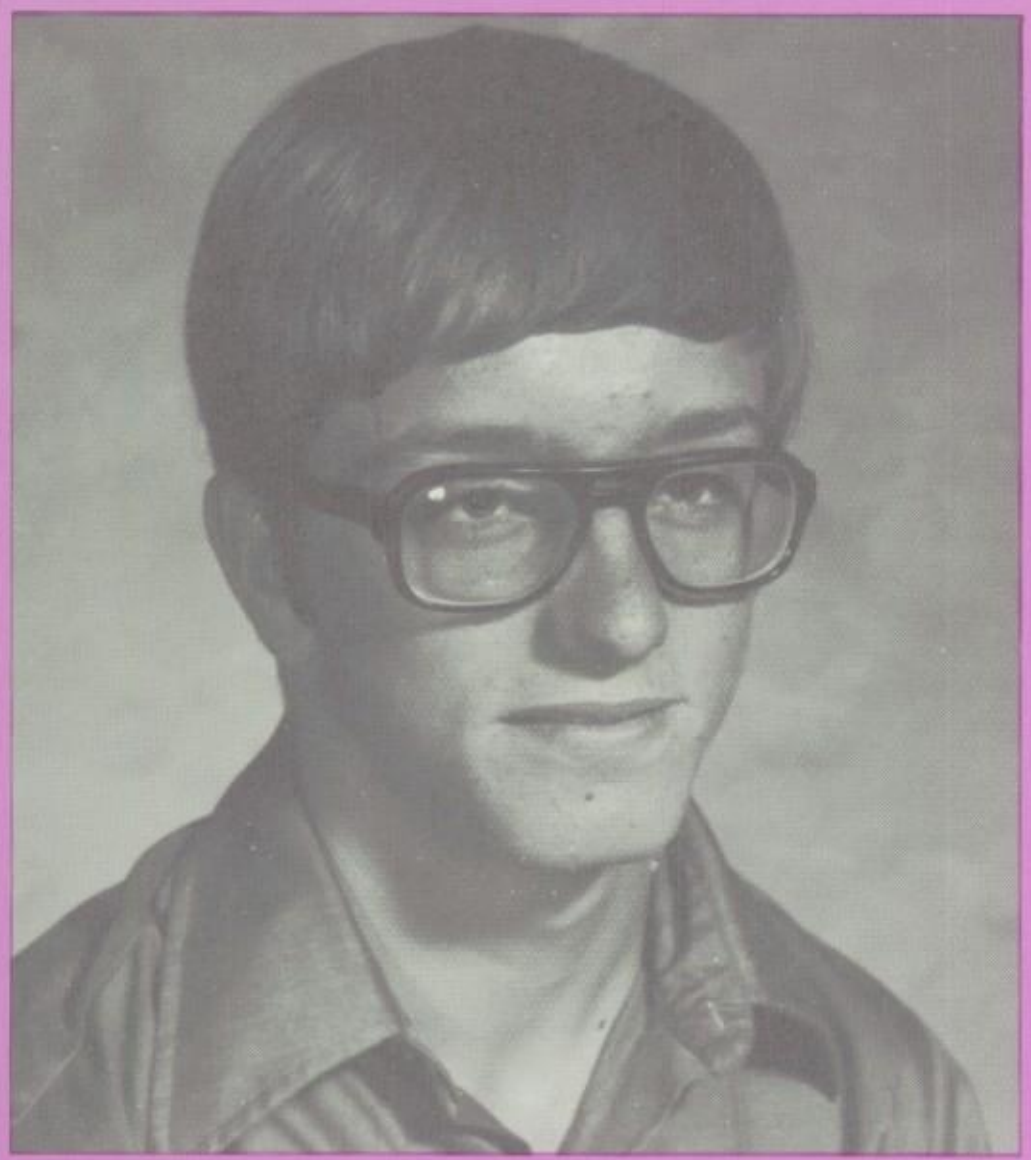
IN MEMORIAM



CARL SWANEY

May 22, 1961 — November 16, 1975

Young in age,
Young in death,
Full of life,
Short in breath.
A man at heart
Too young to take that step
Young he died
A boy in size.

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth-
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

FRESHIE POWER

It's always exciting and sometimes scary to be a little freshman. This year's freshmen were a great asset to the school. They made contributions to both freshman and varsity sports. They also were involved in many school activities. This year's officers were (sitting) Jan Frisk, Sue Mueller, (standing) George Howard, and Brian Bournival.

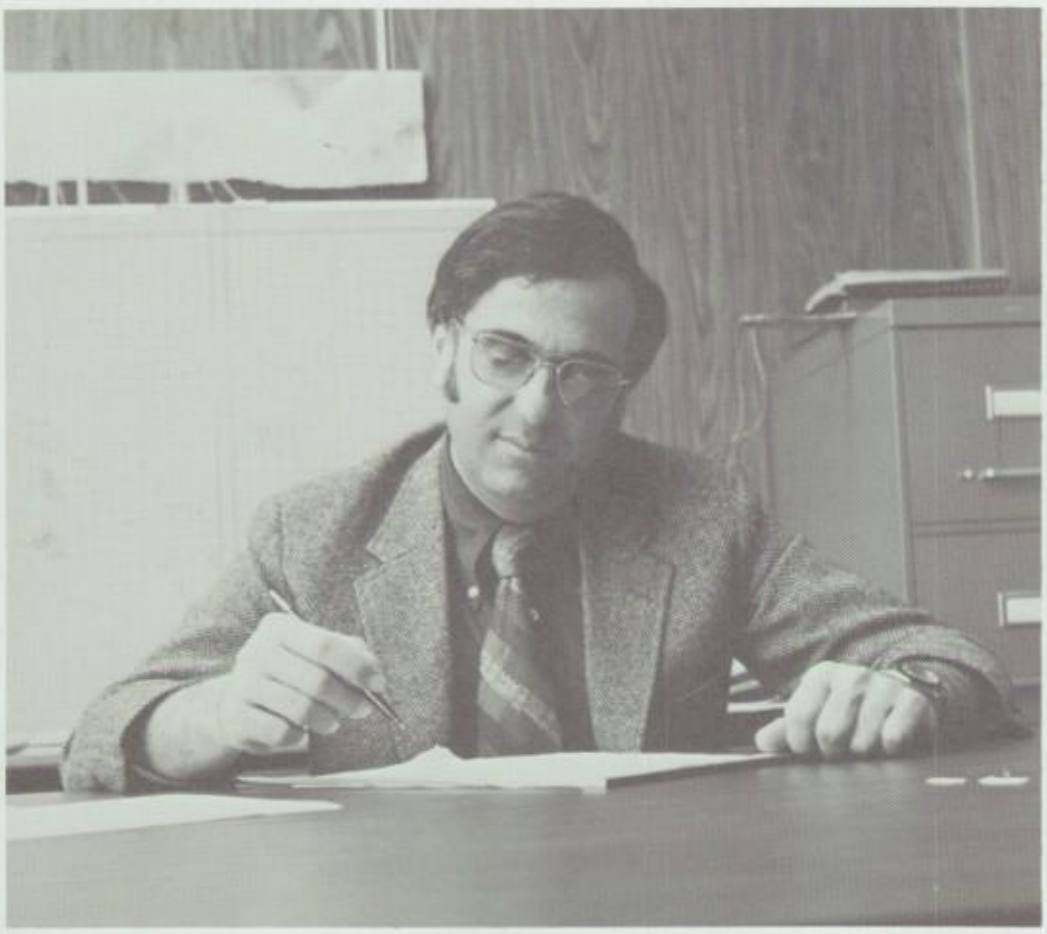
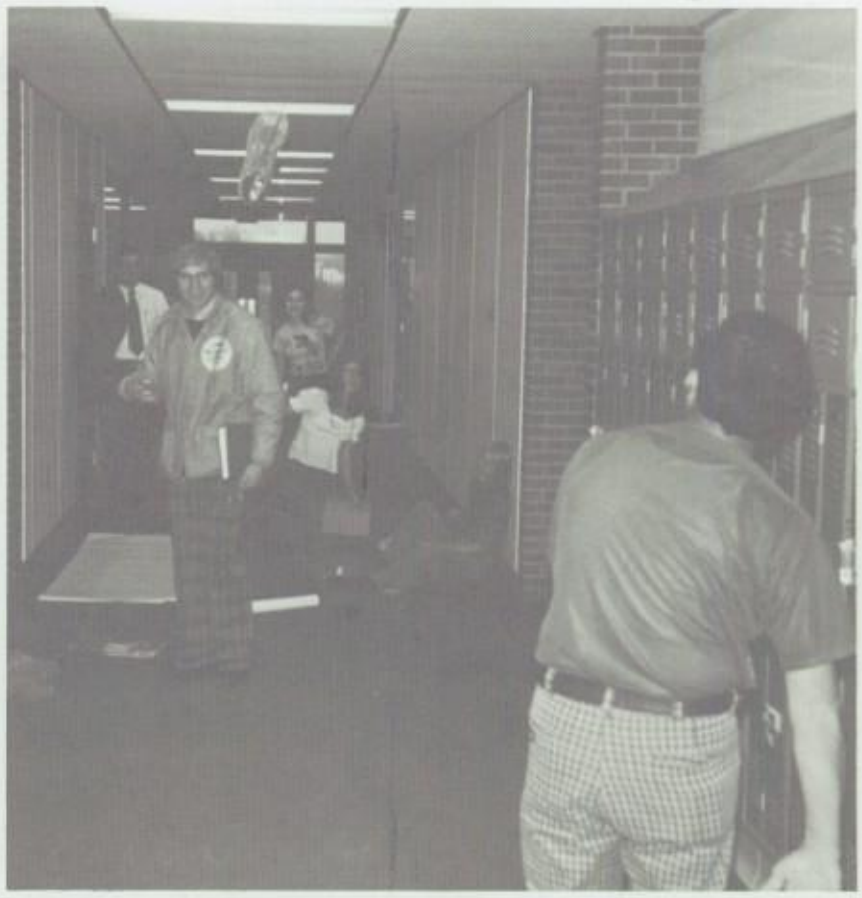
SUPERINTENDENT

Millard P. Bogard
M. ED. Kent State
Local Superintendent

The Superintendent, who is rarely seen at Buckeye, is Mr. Bogard. He comes every once in a while to make sure things are going smoothly. But he is a great man to have for a superintendent for he knows what he's doing and he keeps us on the right track. Mr. Bogard also helps determine when the weather is too bad to have school. He carries a heavy load of responsibilities and handles them all well.

PRINCIPAL





The principal of the Buckeye High School is Mr. Don Clarico. He's done a lot for the school and by helping people with problems. Without him Buckeye would be nothing because he keeps all of us going day after day. Mr. Clarico isn't the type to just sit back, he gets interested in the students, and all the activities.

Don Clarico

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Mr. Don Boynar is the vice principal of Buckeye. He has a tough job here at Buckeye for he has to do the most yelling to keep the kids straight. But he does a good job for without him our school would only be a big mess to be around.

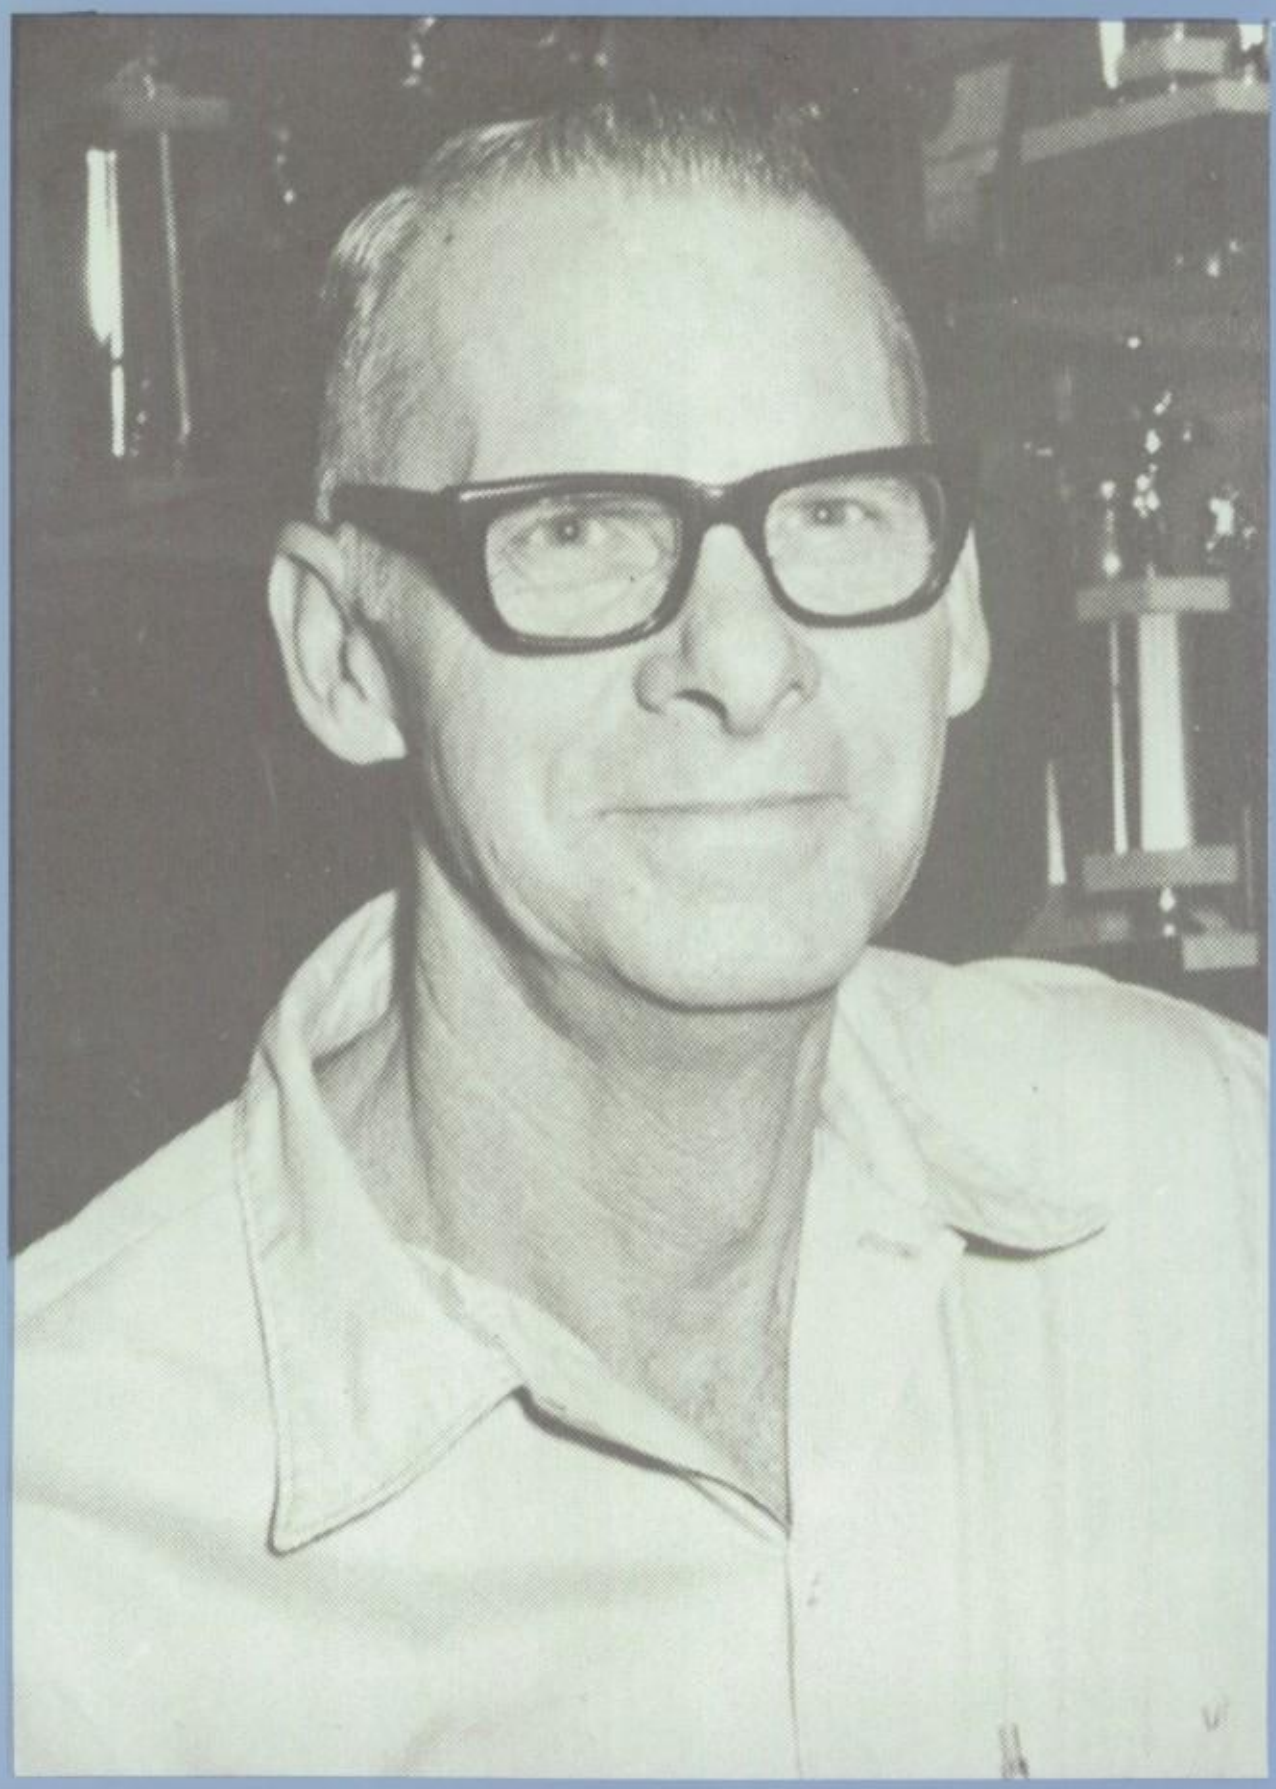
IN MEMORIAM



Mr. Hubler

Four things a man must learn to do
If he would made his record true:
To think without confusion clearly;
To Love his fellowmen sincerely;
To Act from honest motives purely;
To trust in God and Heaven securely.

CO-CAPTAINS GIVE TEAM SPIRIT

The co-captains played an important part in this year's wrestling team. They were chosen by their fellow wrestlers on the basis of spirit and ability. The co-captains are the leaders at every practice. Teaching new techniques and skills to the younger members on the team. They have to keep up the spirit in bad times and are the pep leaders when we're ahead. They are the hardest workers on the team and are always under the watchful eye of Coach Lewis. Dave Palmer, Jim Basile, Matt Steele, Ken Law

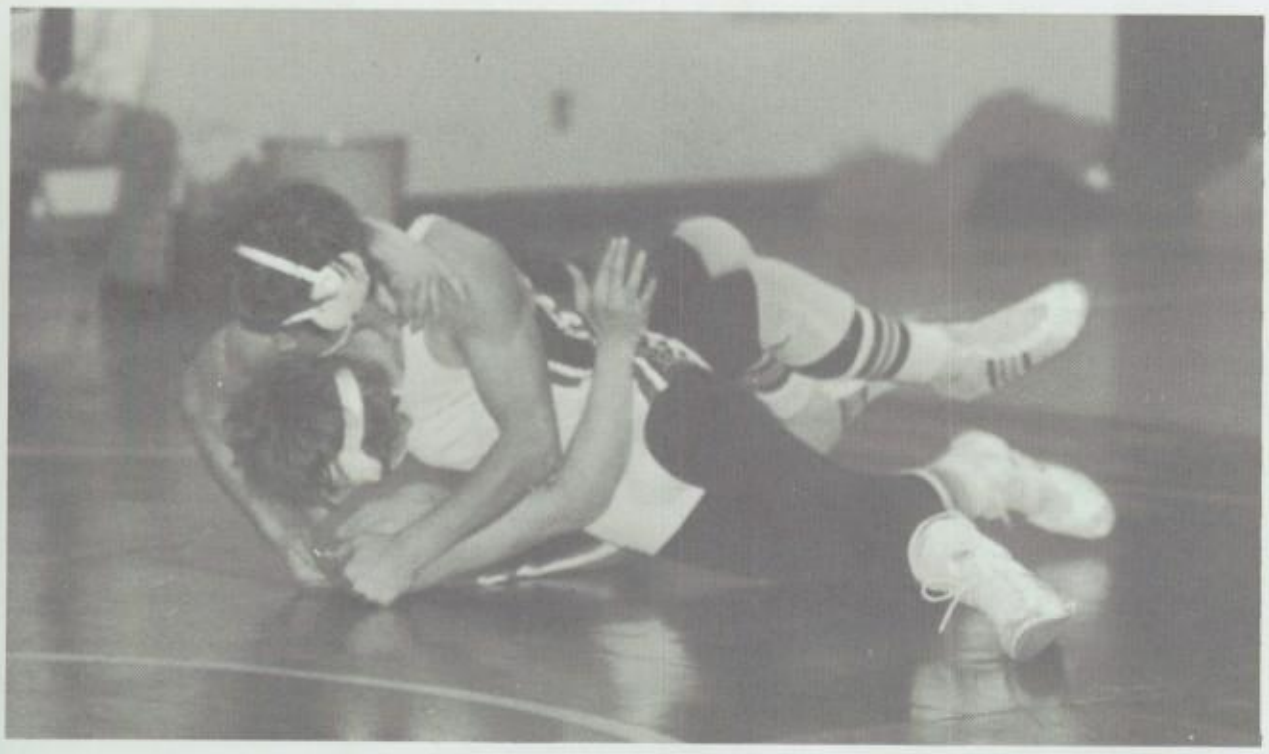
PERFECT MEANS WINNING



Winning is the hardest thing to do in wrestling but most will agree that wrestling practice is just as hard. Practice consists of running the mezzanine steps before and after, calesthenics, drills, and a lot of wrestling. Practice is 2½ to 3 hours everyday after school and sometimes over the holidays.

Randy Crumpler set a new school record in the Mile run with a 4:29.7. Randy will be back next year and he is looking forward to setting a new record.

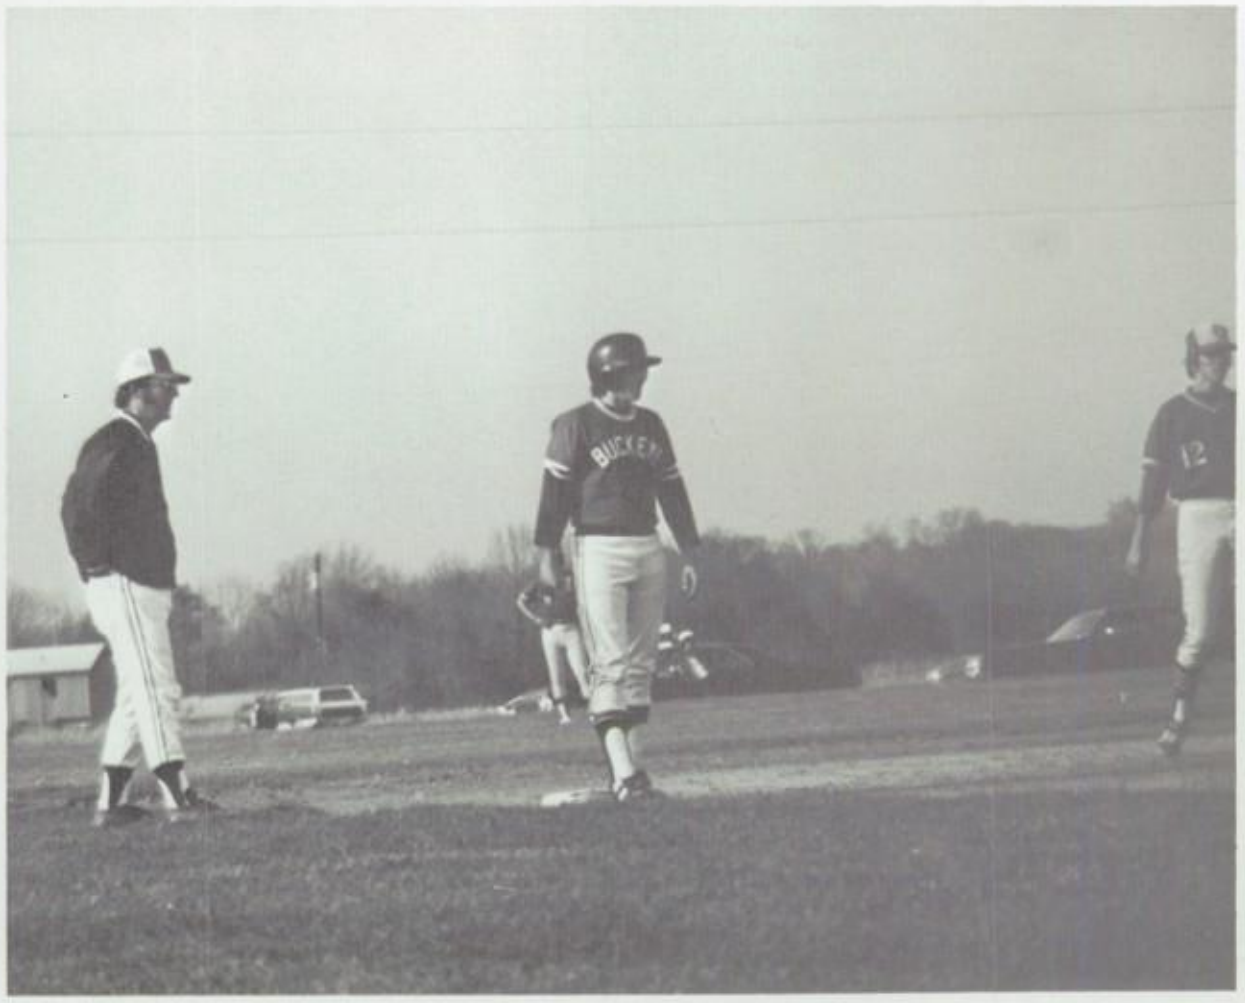
BUCKS SHARE IC CROWN



Kirk gets a lead while Coach Kramer gives advice.

This years baseball team got off on a bad foot as they dropped the first game to Northwestern by a score of 4-1. Fielding a team which sported only two seniors as could be expected the first three weeks were a learning experience for the team. Helping to put this aside were victories over Lorain Senior, Norwayne, Northwestern in a return game and an exciting 3-2 win over an outstanding Wadsworth team. The Bucks then started the Conference schedule with a 5-0 shutout of Avon. Conference foes continued to fall as the Bucks rolled to a 6-0 league mark. Highlighting this string of victories was a no-hitter by Jim Walter in a 2-0 white wash of South Amherst. In a showdown with Co-leader Highland the Bucks fell by a 7-1 score at home. The week later the Bucks traveled to Highland. Sparked by an outstanding game by Jim Walter the Bucks came away with a share of the Inland Conference title.

Seniors on the team were Scott Miller (top left) and Jim Walter (bottom left). Jim was named Most Valuable Player and Best Offensive Player honoring his .517 batting average. In four seasons at Buckeye he compiled a 35-8 won loss pitching record. Scott provided leadership from his position at short stop. These two provided senior leadership that enabled the Bucks to finish with an 18-10 record with a Conference Championship.

BUCKS GAIN VALUABLE EXPERIENCE

Best defensive players, Terry Powers pitching and Tim Tighe behind in center-field.

Kirk Cullin gets set for the pitch.

Man is challenged today to excel in almost every endeavor . . . those who do succeed often trace the beginnings of their performance pattern to accomplishment in high school and to those who offered stimulation and inspiration in these formative years. Josten's has long been a partner to these educational leaders in providing a means of motivation and the rewards of recognition, and Josten's products have become tangible symbols honoring perseverance and achievement.

The class ring is representative of the fine traditions of school spirit and unity The yearbook provides a lasting memento of the year's accomplishments The diploma is a lifelong record of scholastic success The graduation announcement heralds this achievement Awards recognize academic and athletic leadership.

Remember is a lovely word,
And telescopes the years.
When sliding on time's avenue memory appears
To bring to life for inner eyes
The pages of the past,
Where tears and joys have
Merged to form
Rainbows that will last.

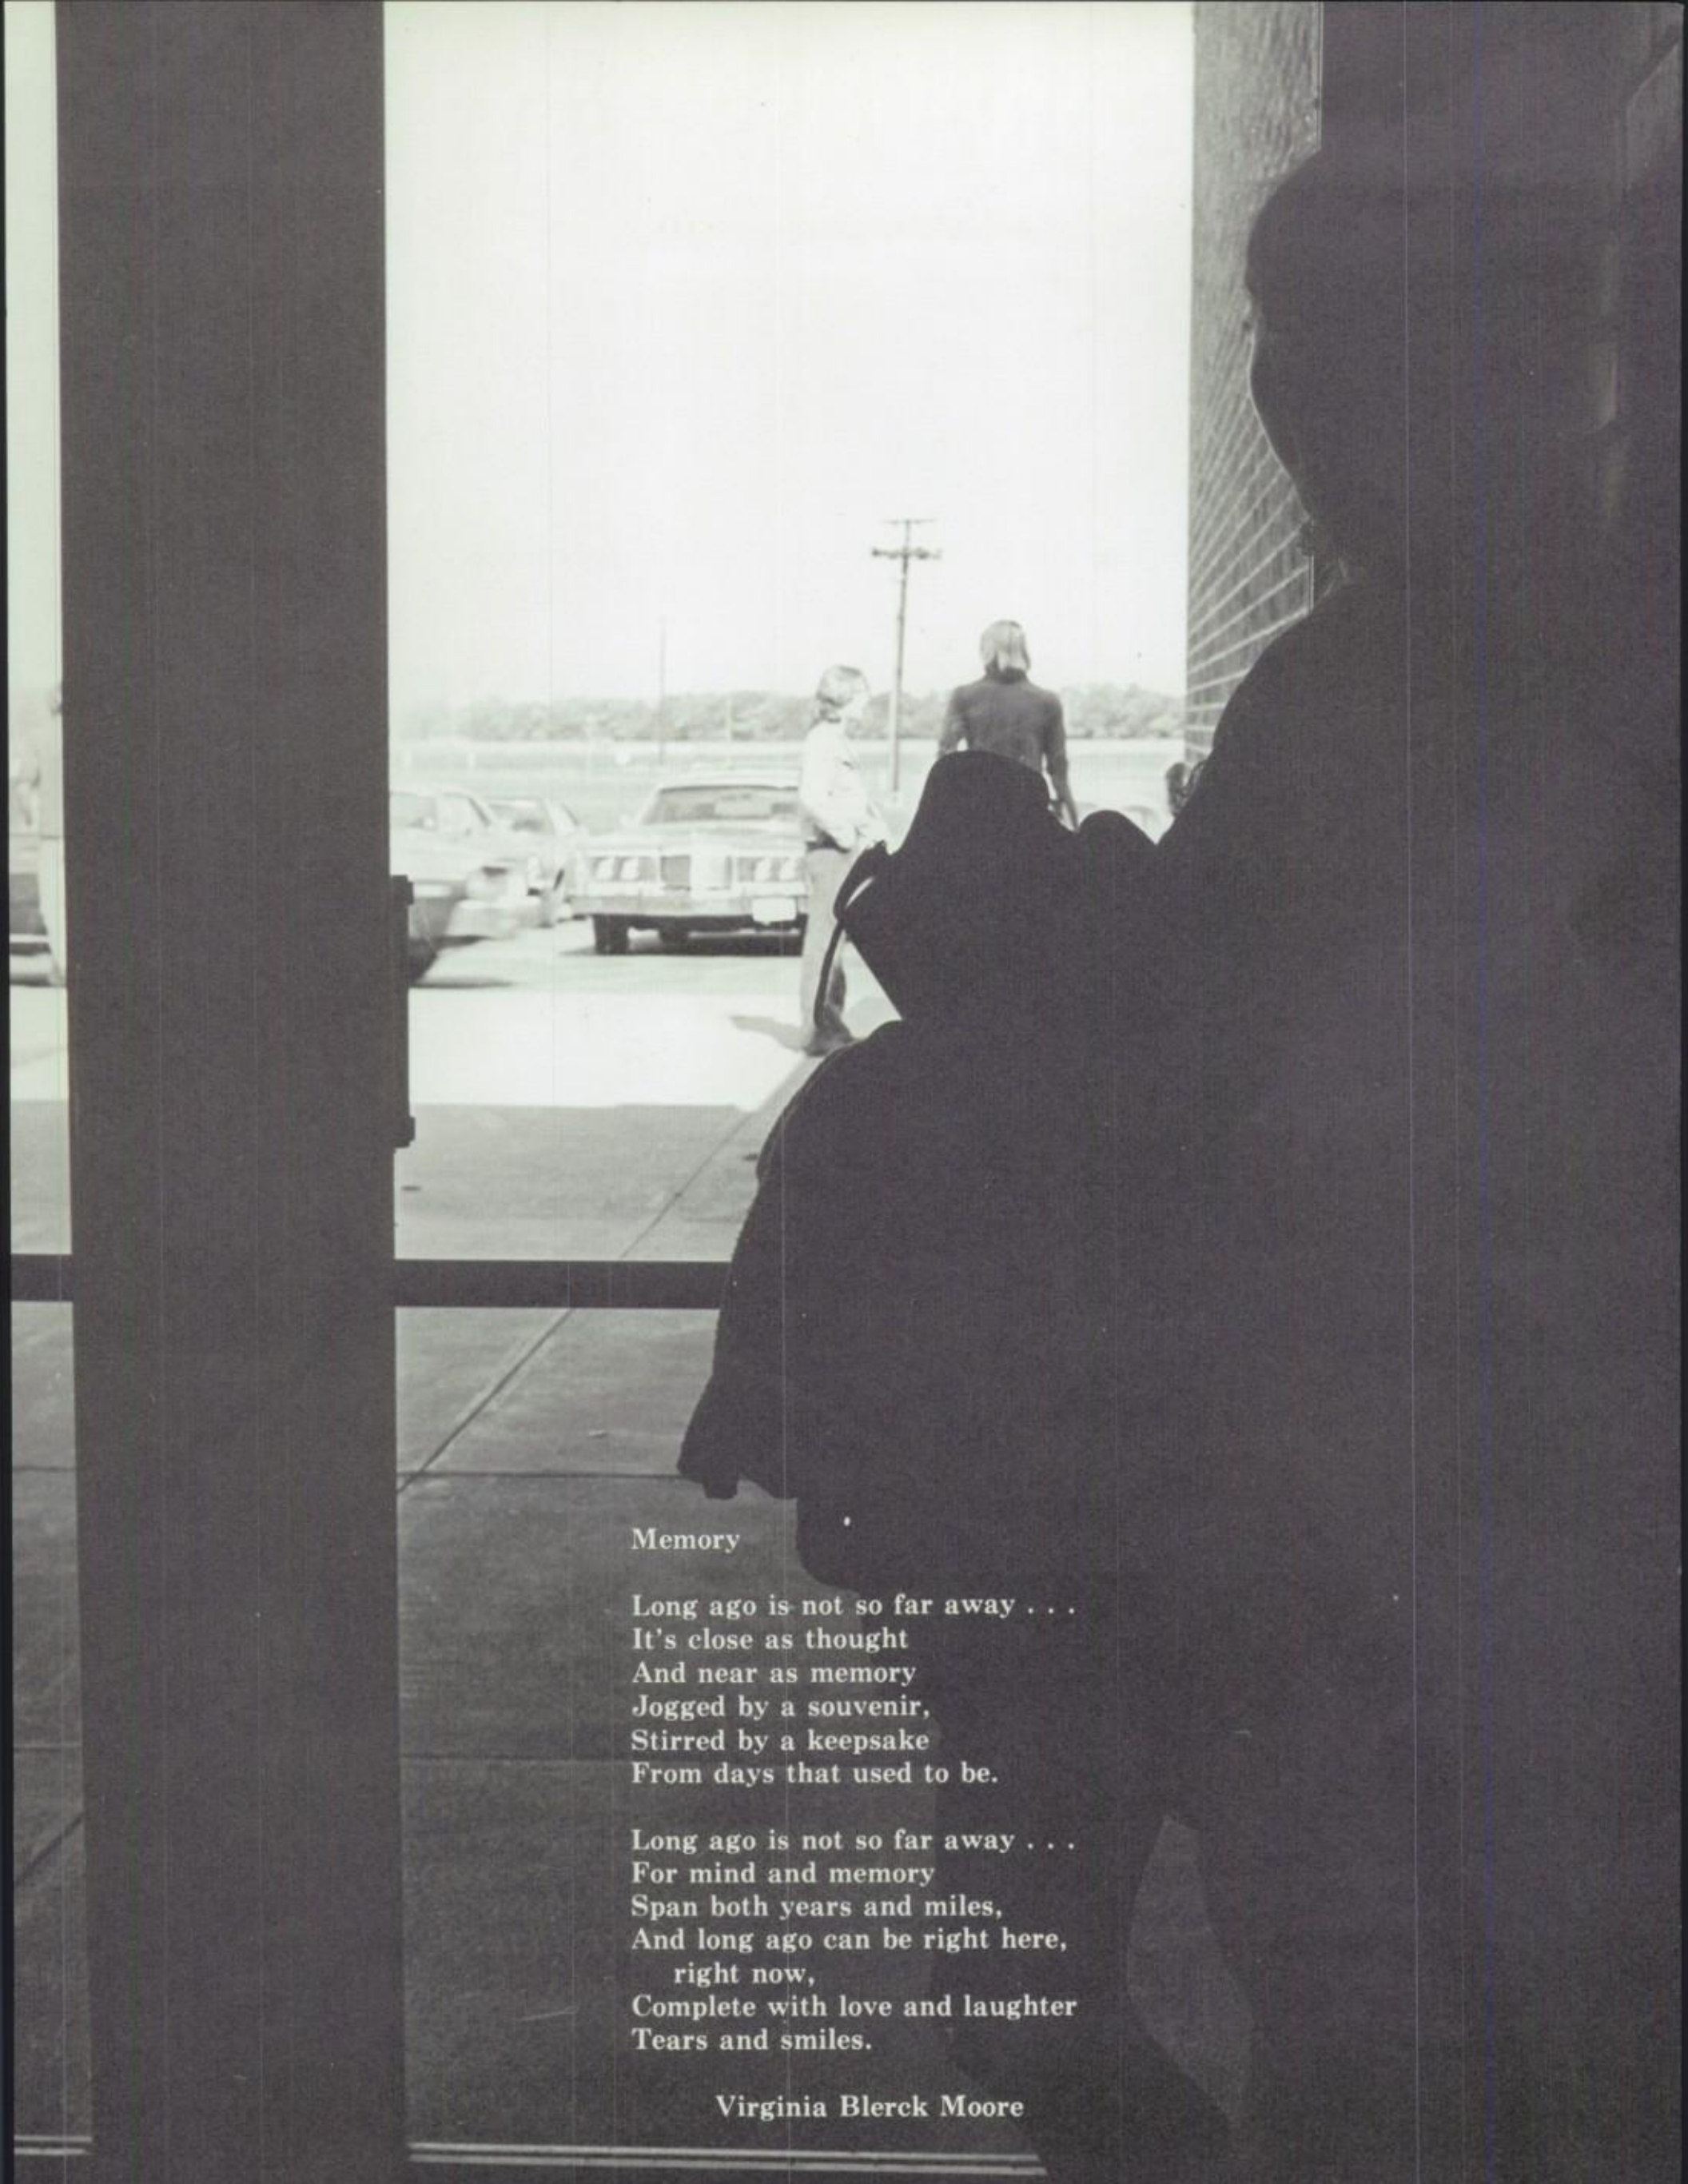
BUS DRIVERS

Mrs. Banks, Mrs. Crumpler, Mrs. Mann, Mr. Broadsword, Barb Thomas, Mrs. Waszil, Mrs. Nolan, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Haury, Mrs. Frombaugh, Mrs. Schumacher, Mrs. Winters, Mr. Crumpler, Mr. Ziegler, Mrs. Nichols ...

The student body would like to thank the bus drivers in bringing them to school. They know, even if they don't want to admit it, that the bus drivers have many responsibilities in driving their routes. They have to get up earlier than any of us on dark and cold wintry mornings and get the bus warm so you won't complain of a cold bus, even though you do it anyway. Good luck bus drivers on the next year's bus routes. Don't get too many headaches.

And aw gee, golly gosh,
THANKS!



Memory

Long ago is not so far away . . .
It's close as thought
And near as memory
Jogged by a souvenir,
Stirred by a keepsake
From days that used to be.

Long ago is not so far away . . .
For mind and memory
Span both years and miles,
And long ago can be right here,
right now,
Complete with love and laughter
Tears and smiles.

Virginia Blerck Moore

EDITOR'S LAST SAY SO

We must always have old memories and young hopes.
Arsene Houssaye

Editor — Joyce Butcher

There are so many fond memories we want to hold on to forever. With a yearbook this is made possible. The 1976 REFLECTOR staff has tried to catch and hold the memories we all love and cherish. I hope that we have done the best that we can for everyone at Buckeye.

As the editor of the 1976 REFLECTOR, I want to thank Mr. Rukavina and my staff for making this book the best ever. Also to the teachers and students that make Buckeye what it is, GREAT.

To you I proudly present this 1976 REFLECTOR.
